The Increase in Value of Property Listed for Taxation-Bancombe's Big

Showing-Briefs. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.] RALMOR, N. C., November 23 .- State-Auditor Roberts to-day made public the abstracts of real estate and personal property in the State as listed this year for taxation. The increase in total value er last year is stated to be seven and a half millions of dollars. The greatest increase in any county is in Buncombe, where it amounts to $1,000,000 in the county and $300,000 in the town of Asbeville. In Wake county the gain is $320,000, and in Durham $600,000. In some few counties there is a decrease. In Mecklenburg the decrease is $300,000, and in New Hanover $100,000.

To morrow will be observed as a close holiday. All the public offices will be closed. Collections in aid of the Oxford Orphan Asylum will be taken at many of churches throughout the State, and Masonic lodges, &c., will also contribute. The State appropriates $10,000 annually to this worthy charity, the expenses of which are now $19,000. Masonic and private contributions make up the bal-ance. There are over 200 pupils, and ap-plications are on file for half as many member this admirable institution to-morrow. Mr. C. H. Robinson, grand master of Masons, makes an official appeal for aid for it. Congressman Nichols (Republican) says he is for the repeal of the internal revenue laws, and that so far as that matter is concerned he stands squarely upon the resolution lately adopted by the Democratic State Executive Committee. That is the popular drift, and no doubt other Republicans will try to put themselves abreast with the idea. mmissioner-of-Immigration John T. Mrs. Gilligan is a tell, raw-boned Yankee woman, who calls the ging of beasts a "critter." She could talk about nothing but her experience yesterday. Her one regret, she said, was that she had not exacted 25 cents a head admission for the people who came to see the dead hon. Moved, perhaps, by a desire to make up for this admission, she visited Mr. Fish, one of Mr Barnam's secretaries, at the office in Main street, and demanded composition, although the calf was not dead, but only bitter, while the cow was only slightly attached. Mr. Fish repeated ton Tribune reporter the woman's story after the manner in which she had related it to him. Said he:

the matter. 'I went to the born,' she proceeded, 'and found that critter devooring a calf. I picked up a big stick and hit him over the head. The critter wouldn't leave loose.
